Hitotsubashi University is a national university, and is the only university in Japan to specialize exclusively in the humanities and social sciences. Since its foundation as the oldest business school in modern Japan in 1875, Hitotsubashi has been at the forefront of Japan’s innovation. It has been a powerhouse for generations of Japan’s globally active business leaders as well as a research hub producing cutting-edge research in the global academic network of the social sciences.

Currently, Hitotsubashi has a teaching staff of about 560, with approximately 4,400 students enrolled in undergraduate courses and 1,900 in graduate courses. There are about 730 international students, along with about 420 researchers from abroad whom we welcome each year from around the world.

STUDYING AT HITOTSUBASHI
Hitotsubashi University emphasizes small-group class education, and one of the prominent characteristics is our seminar style approach. The seminar style approach keeps class sizes small and focuses on intense student-faculty interaction providing rich course content.

(1) Enroll in Specialized Courses/Seminar Conducted in Japanese or English

- Courses/Seminar Conducted in Japanese
  Both graduate and undergraduate courses in Japanese are available. Students must possess minimum language proficiency in Japanese (JLPT Level 2 or N2).

- Courses Conducted in English
  Both graduate and undergraduate courses in English are available; however, most courses conducted in English are undergraduate-level courses, and only a limited number of graduate-level courses are available in English.

HGP (Hitotsubashi University Global Education Program) http://international.hit-u.ac.jp/jp/courses/hgp/index.html
HGP is a program that offers interdisciplinary courses taught in English. HGP is designed for both international and Japanese students, so exchange students will have opportunities to learn alongside our Japanese and international students. Students can choose from a variety of courses in the social sciences under HGP.

  Subject areas include: Japanese Affairs / Business / Economics / Law / International Relations / Social Sciences / Sociology / Academic Skills for International Students / Academic Skills in English

(2) Enroll in Japanese Language Courses
Hitotsubashi University offers a wide variety of Japanese Language Courses ranging from introductory to advanced levels.

(3)* Research under Supervisor (*This option is only for graduate exchange students.)
Graduate exchange students can do their research under a supervisor who specializes in a field that matches their interest.
