Hitotsubashi University is a national university, and is the only university in Japan to specialize exclusively in the humanities and social sciences. Since its foundation as the oldest business school in modern Japan in 1875, Hitotsubashi has been at the forefront of Japan’s innovation. It has been a powerhouse for generations of Japan’s globally active business leaders as well as a research hub producing cutting-edge research in the global academic network of the social sciences.

Currently, Hitotsubashi has a teaching staff of about 560, with approximately 4,400 students enrolled in undergraduate courses and 1,900 in graduate courses. There are about 790 international students, along with about 430 researchers from abroad whom we welcome each year from around the world.

STUDENT EXCHANGE AT HITOTSUBASHI

Students from our partner institutions who have been nominated as exchange students can apply to study at Hitotsubashi University for one of the following four options:

1. From Spring to Summer Quarter (April 2018 to July 2018)
2. From Spring to Winter Quarter (April 2018 to January 2019)
3. From Autumn to Winter Quarter (September 2018 to January 2019)
4. From Autumn to Summer Quarter (September 2018 to July 2019)

Exchange students must have completed two (2) years of undergraduate study or possess equivalent academic ability prior to commencing their exchange at Hitotsubashi University; however, this shall not apply unless it is specified in student exchange agreement with partner universities.
LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT

Exchange Students are required to fulfill one of the following qualification criteria.

- English: TOEFL (PBT) 550 / TOEFL (iBT) 79 / IELTS (academic module) 6.0
- Japanese: JLPT Level 2, N2 or equivalent

* Applicants from the partner institutions in USA, Canada, UK, Australia, New Zealand, Singapore and Hong Kong are exempted from the English language requirements.

 Applicants from the partner institutions which programs are fully conducted in English are exempted from the above language requirements with the letter of proof from the partner institutions.

GPA SCORE REQUIREMENT

Exchange Students must have a minimum GPA of 2.7 or above on a 4.0 scale.

STUDYING AT HITOTSUBASHI

Hitotsubashi University emphasizes small-group class education, and one of the prominent characteristics is our seminar style approach. The seminar style approach keeps class sizes small and focuses on intense student-faculty interaction providing rich course content.

(1) Enroll in Specialized Courses/Seminar Conducted in Japanese or English

- Courses/Seminar Conducted in Japanese

  Both graduate and undergraduate courses in Japanese are available. Students must possess minimum language proficiency in Japanese (JLPT Level 2 or N2).

- Courses Conducted in English

  Both graduate and undergraduate courses in English are available; however, most courses conducted in English are undergraduate-level courses, and only a limited number of graduate-level courses are available in English.

HGP (Hitotsubashi University Global Education Program) http://international.hit-u.ac.jp/jp/courses/hgp/

HGP is a program that offers interdisciplinary courses taught in English. HGP is designed for both international and Japanese students, so exchange students will have opportunities to learn alongside our Japanese and international students. Students can choose from a variety of courses in the social sciences under HGP.

Subject areas include: World & Japanese Affairs / Business / Economics / Law / International Relations / Sociology / Academic Skills in English / Japanese Language

(2) Enroll in Japanese Language Courses

Hitotsubashi University offers a wide variety of Japanese Language Courses ranging from introductory to advanced levels.

(3) Research Under Supervisor (This option is only for graduate exchange students.)

Graduate exchange students can do their research under a supervisor who specializes in a field that matches their interest.

COURSE REGISTRATION
Exchange students should register for a minimum of 12 credits per semester. Typically, two-credit courses meet once a week for a 105-minute lecture over a 14-week long for semester courses or meet twice a week for a 105-minute lecture over a 7-week long for quarter courses.

WORKLOAD HOURS
In accordance with the Standards for Establishment of Universities, all Japanese universities have the same benchmark for the workload hours. Calculations of workload hours for credit course is; 1 credit = 45 hours of workload; 2 credits = 90 hours of workload.

HOUSING:
Hitotsubashi University has two residence halls for exchange students; Residence Hall Kunitachi on Kunitachi campus and Residence Hall Ikkyo-Ryo on Kodaira campus. Exchange students are given priority to reside in a single room of either one of the residence halls with a common area to be shared with residents on the same floor. However, not all exchange students are guaranteed a room due to limited availability. Personal preference of which residence hall to be assigned is not considered.

SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES FOR EXCHANGE STUDENTS:
The following scholarships might be available for exchange students. The application details are not yet determined, and will be informed via email once confirmed.
• Japanese Government Scholarship (Monbukagakusho: MEXT)
