Recognitions

- 2019 Nominee, Carlson Business Week, Faculty of the year award
- 2017 Finalist, Carlson Business Week, Faculty of the year award

Collaborative Efforts and Activities

2017-21 Wrote cases in collaboration with Boston Scientific so that students have the opportunity to work on multifaceted real-world business problems. Students worked in teams and presented their final solutions to executives from Boston Scientific, who evaluated the presentations. In addition, the student teams responded to the executives' questions regarding their solutions. Co-writing cases and organizing these in-class case competitions gave students a comprehensive real-world learning opportunity.
